D.B. CIVIL SPECIAL APPEAL (W) NO.489/2007
(Smt. Kamla Meena Vs. State of Raj. and Ors.)

9.5.2007

HON'BLE MR JUSTICE RAJESH BALIA
HON'BLE MR JUSTICE BHANWAROO KHAN

Mr. Permendra Bohra, for the appellant.

Having heard learned counsel for the appellant, we do not find any merit in this appeal. The grievance of the petitioner was that she being a candidate against the reserved post for Lecturer (Hindi), the result was not declared category-wise and therefore, she has been denied a fare consideration.

After notice to the respondents, the respondents made it clear that in the appointment given in the category of Lecturer (Hindi) against the reserved category to which petitioner belongs no person lower in the merit than the petitioner has been given appointment.

Learned Single Judge has dismissed the writ petition finding that no one are effected.

In the aforesaid circumstances, we do agree with the order passed by the learned Single Judge.

Accordingly, the appeal fails and is hereby dismissed.

(BHANWAROO KHAN),J. (RAJESH BALIA),J.

/rm